

iPad Tips & Tricks – Lazy Web Surfing

If you are heading for a .com domain when typing an address in Safari, you don't need to input the full website address. For example, you can just type "apple" instead of "www.apple.com".

This will save time typing out the whole address and allow you to quickly access a website.

