

iPad Tips & Tricks – Quick Brightness Control

If you find that you can't see your screen clearly because of glare or because you move to another room with different lighting, there's a quick way of adjusting the brightness of the screen.

First open the Multitasking Bar by double pressing the Home button, and then swipe to the right. This reveals a slider you can use to increase or decrease the brightness of the iPad screen to make it clearer.

